

Recovery Act Open House

North Wind Environmental was one of three local small businesses that received Recovery Funding for projects at DOE's Idaho Site.

Members of the community were invited to view displays explaining the work that was accomplished with Recovery Act funding at DOE's Idaho Site.

CWI, the Idaho Cleanup Project contractor, provided light snacks for those attending.

DOE ID Manager Rick Provencher discusses the non-cleanup work that was accomplished with Recovery Act funding.

Editorial Date November 15, 2010
By Brad Bugger